Urges Better Communications

"Communications between businessmen and farmers will help unite Hancock County," stated L. J. Breaux, chairman of the Hancock County Farm Bureau. Breaux spoke to Hancock business and professional men on their last stop of a farm tour sponsored by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce.

Breaux also emphasized that businessmen in Bay St. Louis were losing money because they could not provide much of the materials needed for farming. 'Farmers in Hancock have to go outside the county to buy the things they need," said Breaux. He continued, "Businessmen in Hancock County should offer the farmer agricultural macessites at a savings to insuro that money made in Hancock will stay in Hancock."

Report Giren

Frank Wheat of the surveyor firm Weston and Wheat presented on Monday a Progress Report together with a comprehensive map as requested by the Hancock County Board of Supervisors. Wheat is working through County Engineer. Don Murray, and the purpose of his work is to provide an informational basis to be used in drawing up a flood insurance program for the Mississippi

Gulf Coast. Wheat said, "The general intent of this project is to secure the needed data as quickly as possible and at a minimum

In establishing flood insurance rates Wheat said important considerations include: (1) Elevation above mean sea level of the first floors of structures.

(2) Type of construction on the structures. (3) Number of floors of the structures

(4) Use of the structures. Wheat said his firm has set October 15 as the dead line for completing the surveys and the information will be turned over to Housing and Urban Development. The Mississippi Gulf Coast is divided into three zones, according to the report, and zoning depends on records of frequency of flooding within volved a tence of 603 and Rocky Hill Fig. Tower site. He said this are lied been re-

it applied to flood areas only," Mauffray said: "When we adopted it we thought it was for the lower part of the county and only applied to flooding areas.'

Russell Elliott, president of board, read from the minutes a stipulation made when the Southern Building Code was unanimously adopted by the board that they had reserved the right to modify and amend the code, Elliott said: "I am in favor of the code. It is for the protection of the builder."

It was the expressed feeling of some of the board members that the representatives of the Governor's Emergency Council had failed to clearly define the specifications and that the 22 page typewritten time-consuming and technical to be digested by board members who prefer that regulations be discussed and differences thrashed out in a verbal manner.

Britton assured the Board members that they were within their rights to cancel the code 'If you wish to deprive your citizens of the protection and benefits", however, he stated firmly that to amend or modify the code would have to be a matter of "up-grading" since for Hancock County the code requirements are "barely minimum for acceptance". Objections stemmed from what seemed to be in many cases duplicity of inspections. was pointed out that those building under F.H.A. or V.A. are required by those authorities to have at least three building inspections. A minimum of three inspections are also required under the specifications of the Southern Building Code and by a representative of G.E.C. It was felt these dual inspections posed an added cost and an unnecessary doubleinspection fee. Britton agreed to take this matter up with Federal Authorities and report whether a single inspection service might be acceptable to both concerned organizations.

Looming large was the point of code enforcement. At a prior meeting Thomson had said: 'When you adopted the Southern Building Code you wrote it into a law and it is up to you to enforce it." At this meeting the matter of enforcement was clarified and Britton said:"We will enforce but we may have to call for the services of your sheriff". Quoting from the code: The Council (GEC) will exercise sole authority in such counties and municipalities in issuing permits for construction, approving construction designs and enforcing compliance with Code requirements as herein provided". Objections were made that the code called for licensed tradesmen and Mauffray said it was the practice in rural areas for men who were neighbors and friends to get together and help each other with buildings. Britton said: "We cannot prevent a man from building his own house. We are concerned that he builds to code specifications". This implied that an owner-built house would have to pass inspections, as required by GEC regulations.

Britton pointed out that provisions in the code were a protection not only in areas subject to flood, but in all areas since high winds of gale and hurricans force could rip a poorly constructed home apart and force the debris on to other lands consequently causing damages to another person's property. Code regulations specify devices designed to hold a building together against flood or wind forces. Contractors in adjoining counties who are working under code specifications say these devices do not add appreciably to the cost of construction and that code specifications simply amount to

'just good building practices''. In discussing advantages and benefits derived from periodic inspections it was pointed out the builder would be protected against faulty workmanship that could result in expensive repairs and replacements later; that faulty wiring could be detected by an inspection and thus prevent fire; faulty plumbing results in drainage problems (Cont. on Page 4-A.)

Court House Changes Hours

Beginning on October 3 the Hancock County Court House will remain open a half day each Wednesday and each Saturday to make it more convenient for citizens who wish to pay taxes, obtain automobile licenses, or re-register for voting, according to Sheriff Fred Curet who recently obtained consent from the Board of Supervisors to increase the working hours within the court house for the accommodation of citizens.

Editor, Sea Coast Echo: It has recently come to my attention how mightily involved the Rev. Carl McIntire is in behalf of God and Country. He is presently planning a Victory March in Washington on Oct. 3rd. Many patriotic Americans are responding with their support in this worthy endeavor; many groups plan to charter buses, and march with him. honoring God publicly and Our Flag, and all it stands for, If we can't support him with our presence, let's give him our all out prayerful support in his marches of this type in the past (highly successful) but of course the men who bring us the daily news always somehow forget to report to we, the American people, about these successful marches. They, themselves show the world's people just how biased their news-reporting really is. They highly publicize the tactics of the Communistic Revolutionaries who are trying to destroy our Society. They never forget to show -dus cut no settivities cut the subversives. Petitions ment for American pervicemen held prisoners in Southeast Asia will be the object of petitions which members of Post 3253 of Bay St. Louis will circulate among local citizen Sept. 20-26. Commander Albert Biehl Jr. announced today

Commander Biehl said signed petitions obtained during V.F.W. Freedom Signature will be forwarded to V.F.W. Commander-in-Chief Herbert R. Rainwater who will personally seek to deliver them in October to the North Victnam delegation at the Paris Peace Talks.

"If this fails," Commander Biehl said, "then Commanderin-Chief Rainwater will present them to U. N. Secretary General U Thant and ask that the world organization bring pressure on Hanoi to assure that our men are treated humanely and the sick and injurodare released.'

Over 1,400 American fighting men are believed to be held in Southeast Asia by the North Vietnamese, Viet Cong and other Communists, Commander Biehl reported.

"Reports from the handful of prisoners released by Hanoi and from those who have escaped tell us that our sarvicemen are being held prisoners without proper food or medical care in callous disregard for the standards set up by the Geneva Convention." he said.

"My Post believes that all Americans have a special obligation to these man." Commander Biehl continued, "and feel that these patitions will vividly demonstrate to North Vietnam that the nation is united solidly on this issue and the the cruel and inhuman treatment they are inflicting will only seve to prolong the conflict in Southeast Asia."

Petitions will be available at Gulf National Bank and Hancock Bank in Bay St. Louis.

Hancock County SOYBEANS

Some folks have been askabout using chemical defoliants on soybeans to hasten maturity. This is not recommended!

Allow soybeans to defoliate naturally. Yields are reduced if leaves are removed prior to normal leaf drop.

The reason is that the soybean seed continues to accumulate dry matter after the leaves lose their green pigment and turn yellow. Macimum dry weight in the seed crop is reached when all the leaves are yellow and half of them have fallen from the plant. After the coybeans are mature and ready for combining, you may want to use a desiccant for billing green woods in the soybeans to increase combine efficiency. If so, justimatie sure that you do not do it too stream for the club. coon. Applying the desictant soon can reduce soye bean yields more than can be offset by increased combining officiency.

Rester said the tire and battery sales program through authorized farm bureau dealers is also growing and that bureau members are experiencing good savings in this department.

President Breaux said that the farm safety program is being inacted within the county and is probably responsible for some reduction in vehicle accidants. "The Mississippi Farm Bureau has distributed slow 10,000

reflective safety emblems to farmers operating slow moving eautoment. This act constitutes a mafor contribution to highway and a farm road safety," Breaux said.

Safety is also being stressed in the home and around the farm ward. As one item in this campaign the farm bureau has distributed a list of hard-to-putout fire spots in such locations as equipment sheds, refueling centers or in the farm house kitchen. To help combat the danger the bureau is making fire extinguishers available to membors, again at a saving. Too, the Mississippi Farm Bureau safety department is constantly on the go over the state providing educatonal proprints, demonstrations and films to beep farm people alert maim or cause lesser injury. County legislative com-

Lots of pastures this year have surplus grass in them. If your stocking rate has not been heavy enough to use all the grass, then you might consider concentrating your animals on one pasture or so and use the rest for hay. You have a good investment

Homeowners and tenants along the Mississippi Gulf Coast are now eligible for increased amounts of flood insurance protection on their homes and possessions due to a recent change in the national flood insurance program first made available in Mississippi last April. The program is administered and funded in accordance with requirements established by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development in cooperation with the private insurance industry. Specific communities affected by the changes are Gulfport, Pass Christian, Long Beach, Bay St. Louis, Biloxi, Waveland and the unincorporat-

Mospitals May Use Computers

Mississippi and Illinois may soon share hospital computer services, Lowery A. Woodall, president of the Mississippi Hospital Association, said today,

"Sharing computer services within a state has obvious advantages," said Woodall, director of Forrest General Hospital, Hattiesburg, "and now there's a possibility that our hospitals may even reach outside the state, as well."

Woodall said details are being worked out by the M.H.A. member hospitals and by the Illinois Hospital Association and that a final report may be submitted soon.

He said the Illinois Hospital Association already has initiated a service program through the McDonnell Automation Co. of Peoria, Ill., associated with the McDonnell Aircraft Co.

"It would mean a more expeditious analysis and a greater-in-depth review of all our hospital records," said Woodall. "It would make possible a greater productivity -- a greater use-value -- from our existing records. This would provide ways and means of controlling costs involved in record keeping and record analysis.''

A progress report on progress accomplished to date in working out details with the Illinois Hospital Association was presented recently to the M.H.A. board of directors, said Woodall. The report was presented by D. A. Lingle, administrator of King's Daughters Hospital in Greenville, chairman of the M.H.A. committee on shared computer services. pares the student for a practi-

MISSISSIPPI POWER COMPANY'S HOUSEPOWER PROGRAM

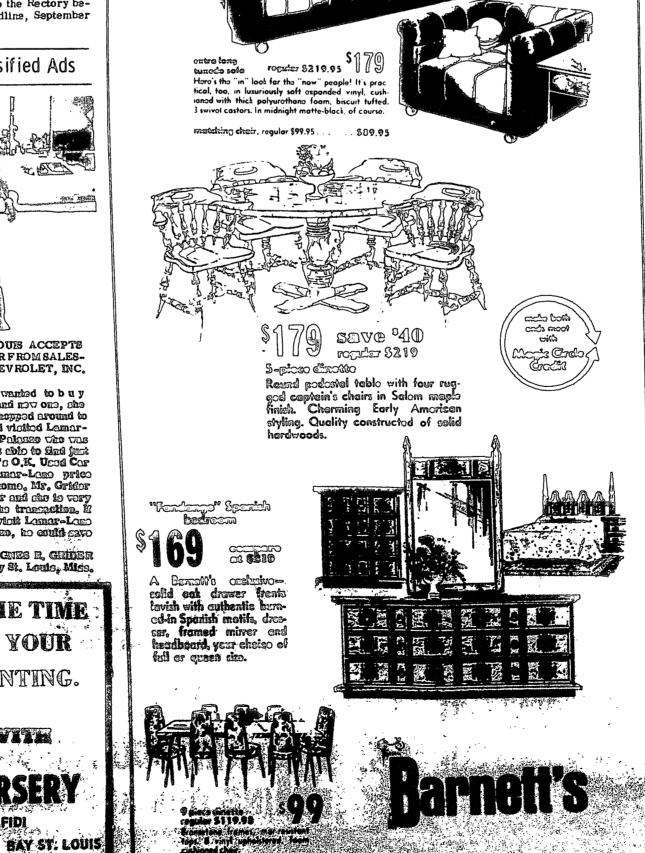

MAY HELP YOU

Many homes, old and new, have "low housepower" because the customer-owned entrance wiring into them is too small to provide sufficient voltage for the electric appliances which make life more comfortable and enjoyable. When your home has "low housepower," electric appliances and equipment cannot operate efficiently. To prevent this, Mississippi Power Company's Housepower Program makes it easy and economical to have full housepower.

Mississippi Power Company will pay from $40-$75 to help upgrade service entrance wiring into homes of customers who qualify under the Housepower Program. The customer adds to his home an electric range, quickrecovery electric water heater, electric clothes dryer, or permanently installed electric heating of specified size. Mississippi Power Company provides a modern Outdoor Housepower Box and pays the electrical contractor up to $75 to install it.

figures show that college graduates carn twice as much in their lifetime of employment as do high school dropouts and three times as much as grade dropouts. And high ochnol graduates earn more than dropouts." Wobb called it a "Fallacy" to think that a youngster can "make money" by dropping out of school, because "What little money he makes during school years is a pittance compared to additional income he will derive from better schooling."

Summing up the campaign, said the emphasis throughout has been staying in school, without regard to distinction between public school or private school.

'We are not concerned, in this campaign, with the respective merits of public schools or private schools," said Webb. "Whatever the school, it is better than dropping out."

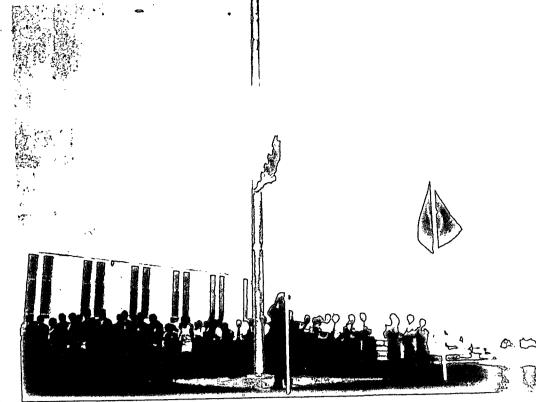

The MEC President expressed his appreciation to the mass media of Mississippi for halping deliver the "stay in School" message to the widest possible audience.

"The newspapers and radio and television stations of this CONVORTION state have been most helpful." said Webb, "Without them, the campaign would not have been r^ssible.'

Webb noted that the MEC has a list of long-range goals for the improvement of education in the state, but he said the "Stay in School" campaign was concerned with the single, immediate goal of preventing young Mississippians from terminating their education.

"Youngsters who drop out of school with some vague idea that they will eventually return to the classroom," said Webb, "are, in the great majority of cases, only fooling themselves. It's much easier to stay in school than it is to drop out and come back in.

MR. TONY MACUICK AND SON COTTON ACCEPT DE-LIVERY OF HIS NEW CHEVY PICKUP FROM BROTHER IN-LAW KOENENN, SALESMAN AT LAMAR-LANE CHEVRO-LET IN BAY ST. LOUIS, MISS.

Mr. Tony Macuick of Bay St. Louis was in need of a new pickup truck. Since his brother-in-law works at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet in Bay St. Louis as a salesman and he had been hearing about all the good deals he has been giving folks, he decided that he would visit him and see what kind of a deal he would offer him. Well Mr. Macuick found out that all the things he had been reading and hearing about the good deals by his brother-in-law on new cars and trucks were truchecause he gave him a Lamar-Lane price that was a very good deal and a money saving deal. Salesman J.C. Koenenn sells many cars and trucks at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet, and one of the reasons is because he knows the capabilities of the vehicles he sells, whether it be a car or a truck. No matter what your transportation needs may be, visit Lamar-Lane Chevrolet, and talk to salesman J. C. Koenenn, he could save you many dollars and sell you just the car or truck

Director J. Edgar Hoover of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in his annual report on crime in the USA for 1969, says of the 50 states Mississippi had the lowest overall crime rate, and California the highest.

With nearly 5,000,000 serious crimes committed, the risk of becoming a victim increased 120 percent since 1960. There were 2,471 crimes per 100,000 population, a 12 percent increase over 1968.

The Mississippi rate for 1969 was 740.5 crimes per 100,000 population, with California 4,110.5 per 100,000. The risk of becoming a victim was over five times as high in California as in Mississippi.

Violence in Mississippi has been so played up by a sensational press and the radio and TV networks, that it is good again to see that Mississippi leads all the states in the observance and enforcement of the law, that life is safer the more course in Mississipp. than in any other star, or the mion.

not be a droaded and mossy chore. GLAD has for sale of a vary modest price TRASH BAGS that are lealproof. Those 30 inch x 37 inch bags fit into 20-x30 gallon cans and are really a step-saver as well as a clean way to handle garbago. Simply fit the bag into your garbage container, leaving about six inches overlapping the outter rim. Toss in your kitchen refuse, etc. and on collection day gother together the overlapped top of the bag, us it with the quick-twist wire provided with the bags and place it at a spot convenient for the pick-up. You will not have to return later to retrieve and wash out an empty can. Your neighbors will bless you for there will be no unsightly garbage can to mar the beauty of house and lawn. Your garbage collector will bless you, too, for he can quickly toss the bag into the truck and move on without worry of leaving a litter of bits and pieces of stray refuse in the wake of the truck.

The A.& P. Store is now featuring a special trial offer of two of these Glad Bags for only 10 cents. Why not give these extra heavy plastic bags a try You will probably never go back to the old method. Especially with the coming of colder weather and rainy days -- going back to pick up the empty garbage can is a dreary dread! Some cities have adopted this method of garbage disposal and haldle the sale of the bags from their City Halls. They find the method saves tax payers money.

Less time is consumed in collecting garbage (men are paid by the hour), and there is less street-cleaning to be done (also paid by the hour).
